THREE KILLED IN CRASH OF PLANE EN ROUTE TO WARREN

PRAGUE GIVES LEADERS BIG WELCOME

By HAROLD K. MILKS

Prague, Czechoslovakia (AP)—The Khrushchev promised Czechoslovakia today that the in the Communist bloc which would react to the attempt in Prague will never happen.

The Soviet Communist party spoke to a huge crowd at Prague railroad station, formerly named for Woodrow Wilson, and Premier Bulganin, who brought them on a 24-hour stop tour across Czechoslovakia.

The Hungarian events clearly showed the real character of the Communist bloc. Khrushchev declared, "Our opponents, our enemies, very much wanted to subvert the unity of the Socialist camp to split it apart and then by one to crush the peoples of democratic order. But this, comrades, will never happen. Never will it be possible for the body to shake and violate our commonwealth. The people of the Communist bloc will understand that in fraternal unity and solidarity the most reliable guarantee of freedom and independence."

Welcoming the visitors, Czech President Antonin Zapotocky predicted that the Prague would "tighten the unity and solidarity" of the entire Communist bloc. Zapotocky openly endorsed Khrushchev's purge of his rivals in the Kremlin leadership, saying the let party's Central Committee string which took the action "showed the world how weak and hopeless are all attempts to weaken our unity or to change Leninist policies."

The Kremlin leaders exchanged embraces with Zapotocky, and Minister Vilem Siroky and Red leaders. As they marched to a flag-decorated platform in front of the station a crowd of children almost buried Khrushchev and Bulganin in bouquets of roses.

Reader Signs Bill Increasing Cost Of Fishing Licenses

Harrisburg (AP)—Gov. Leader signed into law an increase of 75 cents a year in fishing license fees in Pennsylvania.

The fee jumps from $2.50 to $3.25 next year. The new law also boosts from 50 cents to $1 the portion of the earmarked for construction and prohibits the use of that part for other or artificial fish propagation.

Reader vetoed legislation that would have imposed a 30-day waiting period after a court support order is issued before a person's wages could be attached.

Other bills vetoed by the governor would have: changed from red to yellow the color of the flashing lights required on all state and municipal snowplows and other trucks. Extended until after Jan. 31, annually, the deadline for municipalities to file reports upon which the Health Department bases allocations for state aid in construction of sewage treatment plants.

Boy Scouts Invading Valley Forge For National Jamboree

By LEE LINDER

Valley Forge (AP)—Tents of many colors dotted the grassy meadows and hills of historic Valley Forge today as thousands of Boy Scouts continued their orderly march for Friday's start of the 40th annual National Jamboree. By the time the encampment officially begins with the "roll call the regions" more than 55,000 Scouts and their leaders will be on the campsite made famous by George Washington's Continental Army.

A smooth operation, marred only by a few mishaps and schedule delays, more than 18,000 Scouts and leaders arrived yesterday. A similar number are in today with the final third of the jamboree tents tomorrow after arrival. Scouts claimed two distinctions: It had the first unit to arrive.

Special Parking Regulations For CV Test Thursday Night

On Thursday evening, during the public demonstration of Civil Defense rescue work during a mutual aid run, the public is asked to abide by certain parking regulations which will be in effect on—Pennsylvania Avenue south side from Liberty to Hickory; no parking on either side of Pennsylvania from Hickory to Hazel; no parking on either side of Hickory from Pennsylvania to Third. Traffic will detour up Hazel and down Fourth, according to Borough CD director David Levine.

Fire Chief James Tridico will be in charge of the mutual aid run participated in by about 12 volunteer units from across the county.

Simulated disaster victims will be removed from a nearby building of the real disaster area of the Carver Hotel site. Civil Defense Water Rescue Division will put on an exhibition in Allegheny River opposite the 400 Block.

Friday, Warren will participate in the nationwide CD alert as sirens will be blown sometime during the day (probably morning) and traffic will be curbed during a take cover blast. For the all clear, another "alert" will be sounded, the first such time this will have been used locally.

New York Senators Prepared To Battle Against Approval Of Kinzua Dam Appropriation

By JOHN KOENIG JR.

Washington (AP)—New York's two U. S. senators prepared today to battle against approval of a one million dollar appropriation to begin construction of a huge flood control dam at Kinzua, Pa.

The fund, included in President Eisenhower's budget for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1958, already has won House approval and yesterday apparently gained a nod from a Senate appropriations subcommittee.

Sen. Martin (R-Pa.), a proponent of the dam project, told a newsman that no official announcement will be made until the full Senate committee acts, but he indicated a long list of House-approved projects for Pennsylvania were advanced for full committee consideration.

Only change in the list of Pennsylvania appropriations, Martin said, was a proposed boost of two million dollars in the nine million approved by the House for deepening the Delaware River channel above Philadelphia to 40 feet rather than an interim 35 feet.

A survey of Delaware River water resources likewise would be given an increase to $500,000 instead of the $365,000 approved by the House for the current fiscal year.

Although the Kinzua Dam appropriation was unchanged the controversy that waged over that project for some time gave evidence of continuing.

Sen. Ives (R-NY) said he will work within the Appropriations Committee to defeat the project. Ives became a member of the committee following the recent death of Sen. McCarthy (R-Wis).

Aides of Sen. Javits (R-NY) reported that he is standing solidly behind Ives in efforts to hold up the project in committee.

Javits likewise opposes construction of the dam because of a 1794 treaty granting the Senecas permanent rights to land along the Allegheny River and because "there is a question of whether the dam itself is economically feasible."

Only one member of Pennsylvania's senatorial and 30-member congressional delegation—(Rep. Saylor R)—has taken a position against the appropriation for the dam.

Israel accused Syrian forces of opening fire on the Golan Heights settlement and on Israeli vehicles traveling north to the Sea of Galilee.

CLINTON JURY HAS TEN MEN, TWO WOMEN

By RELMAN MORIN

Knoxville, Tenn. (AP)—Federal attorneys set out today to unveil the evidence in the charges against 16 segregationists accused of forcibly interfering with enrollment of Negroes in a small-town Tennessee high school.

"This lawsuit is shaping history," a defense lawyer solemnly asserted in U. S. District Court.

The trial, involving integration at Clinton, Tenn., High School, has been heralded as a major test of the U. S. government's power to enforce the Supreme Court order to end segregation in the public schools.

The jury, 10 men and two women, was completed late yesterday. On trial are 15 Tennesseans, including a pregnant, teen-age housewife.

The 16th defendant is John Kasper, lanky, owl-eyed native of New Jersey. He is accused of coming to Clinton and stirring up the riots that took place when Negro students entered the high school.

Kasper, like the other 15, is being tried for criminal contempt. All are accused of violating a federal court injunction against interfering with racial integration at the school.

But neither he nor the battery of lawyers defending the Tennesseans concealed their distaste for the joint trial. Kasper is represented solely by J. Benjamin Simmons, Washington, D. C., attorney.

Kasper told a reporter: "They (the other defense lawyers) came into this when they heard money was being raised. Politics and publicity were behind it too."

Lawyers for "the 15"—as they describe themselves in court—claim there is so much "mass prejudice" against Kasper that the joint trial works to the disadvantages of their clients.

Four Negroes were among the 31 people examined for this jury. The government accepted two. The defense challenged them all.

Questioning by the opposing lawyers foreshadowed a major area of battle in the trial.

U. S. Dist. Atty. John C. Crawford pounded at the candidates on one theme—respect for law, even when they disagreed with a legal order.

At the request of The American National Red Cross, Miss Beth Calderwood, a caseworker at the Erie Red Cross Chapter, has been assigned to aid in disaster relief operations at the hurricane-stricken area of Louisiana.

Miss Calderwood left by plane today to report to the Red Cross Disaster Headquarters at Lake Charles, La. In February of this year Miss Calderwood served with the national organization for approximately six weeks in the flood-stricken areas of Virginia, West Virginia, Kentucky and Tennessee.

A native of Warren, Miss Calderwood joined the Erie Chapter's Home Service staff last summer, following her graduation from Goucher College in Maryland. She is the daughter of Mrs. George Q. Calderwood and the late George Calderwood of Warren.

Stickler, Manu-Mine president, made the statement under cross-examination.

Stickler said he blamed recently financial losses by Manu-Mine to "the harassment of vendors, suppliers, and all our contact people by the commonwealth."

He testified that "state interference" caused the company to lose money in the last year on a U. S. Navy contract.

Dep. Atty. Gen. Vincent G. Patten cross-examined Stickler on earnings the Manu-Mine president made during late 1954 and part of 1955 under the turnpike contract.

Stickler testified that in the latter part of 1955 all the stock of Manu-Mine was owned by himself, his wife and his cousin, the late Richard H. Evans, son of former Commission Chairman Thomas J. Evans. The elder Evans is among the nine defendants.

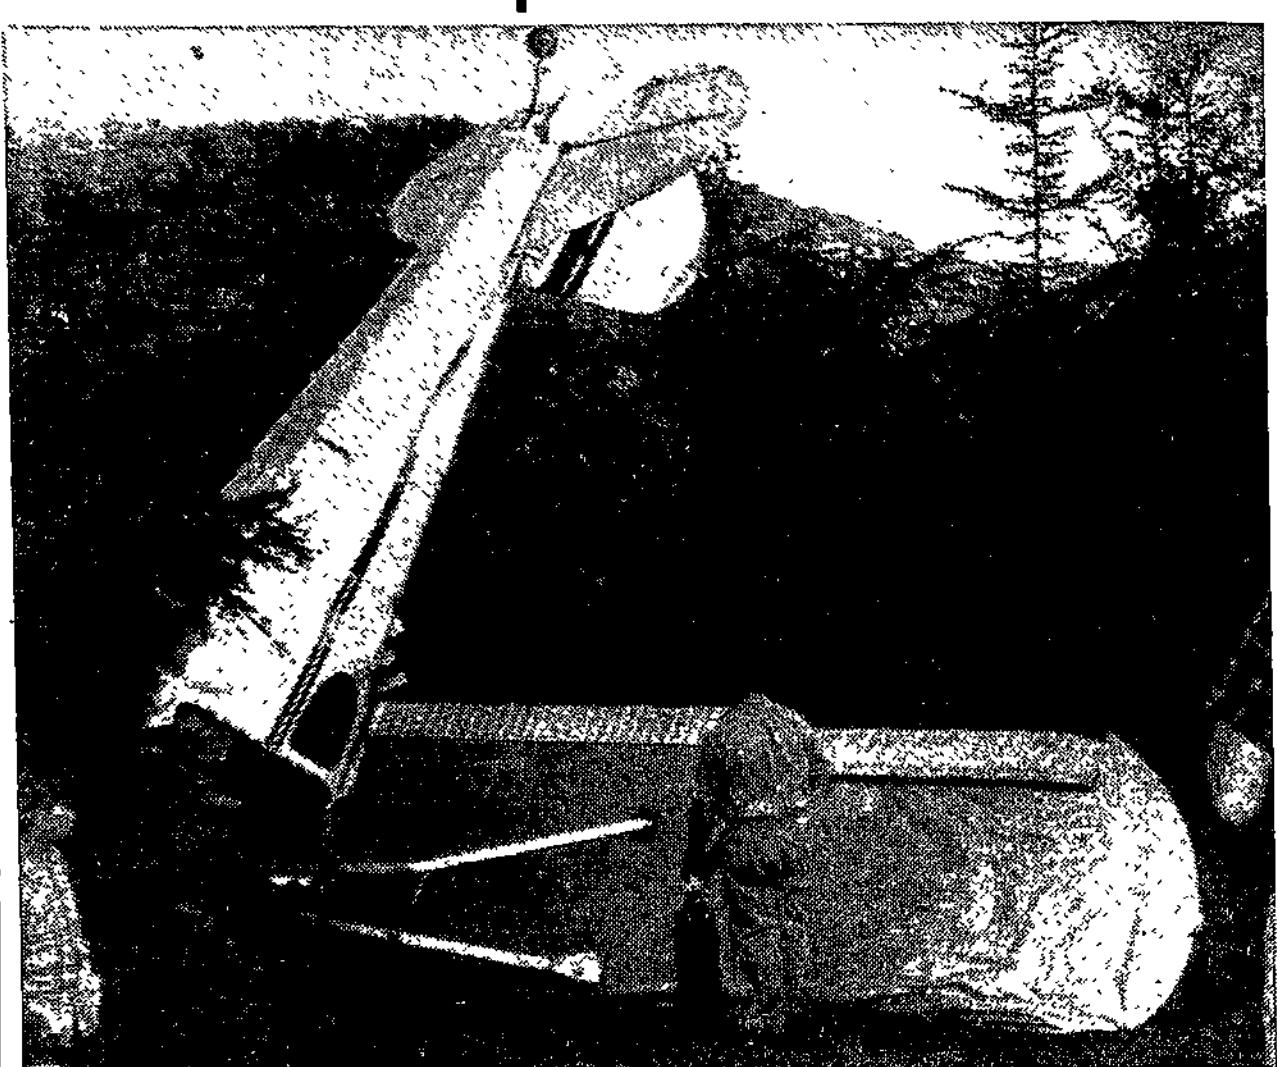

Maureen O'Hara Suing Magazine for a Million

Santa Monica, Calif. (AP)—Actress Maureen O'Hara wants a million dollars damages from Confidential magazine, which printed an article about her in the March 1957 issue.

Her libel suit yesterday said the article was false and impugned her character.

Her attorneys included Confidential's publisher Robert Harrison among the defendants and also named up to 3,000 John Does who sell the magazine at their stands.

Aircraft With Package of Metal Parts for Sylvania Plunges To Earth at Airport Near Bradford

It was in this serene woodland area where a Cessna 170 crashed last night killing three persons and seriously injuring a fourth. The chartered plane was on its way to deliver parts in Warren when for some unexplained reason the pilot tried to land at Harri Emery Airport near Bradford. The plane came in to the small field too high, tried to buzz off, but the engine failed and the craft crashed to earth from an estimated 100 feet. No fire resulted. Photo Courtesy Bradford Era.

Warren Red Cross Worker Assigned To Hurricane Relief

A chartered plane heading for Warren crashed last night killing three persons and seriously injuring a fourth as it stalled then plunged to earth at Harri Emery Airport near Bradford.

The dead, all from the plane's home port of Binghamton, were: Everett Clayborne, 34; his daughter, Patricia, 11; and Joseph Y. Dendy, Jr., 34.

Clayborne's wife, about 30, was listed in serious condition at Bradford Hospital.

The plane left Tri-Cities Airport at Endicott, N. Y. at 4 p. m. and was headed for Warren with a package of metal parts for Sylvania.

Officials of the local company were thrown into turmoil at the news of the crash as Sylvania did have two of their lease planes carrying personnel in the Bradford area. However, this particular flight had been chartered by a Sylvania supplier.

Joseph A. Field, manager of the Harri Emery Airport, saw the craft approaching for a landing about 6:20 p. m. He said the four-place, single engine Cessna overshoot the runway, then began climbing before it stalled and spun to the ground. The crash rammed the engine into the pilot compartment. There was no fire.

"The pilot was coming in correctly as far as the wind was concerned," Field added, "but he was too high. He tried to pull up but the engine stalled and the plane spun to earth, the propeller shearing off the tops of two pine trees before the craft came to rest about 800 feet from the end of the airport apron."

It was not learned why the plane was attempting to land at Bradford, or how the pilot, assumed to be Dendy, had missed the Bradford-McKean Airport which is just a few air miles away.

Dendy, reportedly a one-third owner of the wrecked plane, was a postal employee in Binghamton. He and Clayborne served in the Air Force several years ago but were not pilots. Both, however, had private pilot licenses.

Clayborne's wife is in Bradford City Hospital with fractured right leg and ankle, multiple cuts and bruises of the body. All the victims were Negroes.

SENATOR SAYS IKE HAS OPEN MIND ON BILL

Washington (AP)—Sen. Russell (D-Ga.) said after a conference with President Eisenhower today that Eisenhower's "mind is not closed to amendments which would clarify" the administration's civil rights bill.

Russell, quarterbacking Southern forces opposed to the legislation in the Senate, told newsmen Eisenhower is against enactment of any "punitive" measure.

Eisenhower and Russell talked over the bill for about 50 minutes at the White House.

Although Russell said Eisenhower has an open mind with respect to the possibility of clarifying amendments, the senator refused to express an opinion as to whether the administration will back such amendments.

"The President's mind is open," Russell said. "It is not closed to amendments which would clarify the bill."

In advance of Russell's conference with Eisenhower there were hints at the Senate that sponsors of the administration measure probably will consider compromises.

The White House conference was set up with only a few minutes advance public notice.

The current fight in the Senate—short of a full-scale filibuster so far—is over a motion to bring the bill itself up for floor action.

Statement of Appreciation Is Issued By Jaycee Co-Chairmen

The following appreciation was issued today by Bill Clinger and Dick Cook, co-chairmen of the first Jaycee Mid-Summer Mardi Gras:

"On behalf of the Warren Junior Chamber of Commerce we would like to thank all of the people and organizations in Warren County who so generously supported our first Jaycee Mid-Summer Mardi Gras either through financial assistance or by rolling up sleeves and pitching in with manual labor. In either case, your assistance was sincerely appreciated."

"Lack of space precludes the listing by name of all those who gave us a helping hand; but, certainly there are entire groups who should and can be named. . . . the Warren Police Department, the Civil Defense, the Hot Stove League, Borough and county fire departments, Warren and Sheffield

School Boards, the Warren Park Department, the Shrine and the K. of C., the American Legion and the V. F. W., and all other organizations and individuals who contributed to the parade and other portions of the celebration."

"Most of all, we wish to thank the staffs of the Warren Times-Mirror, radio station, and other members of the press for the tremendous assistance each gave us both before and during the week-long Mardi Gras."

"Regarding this new concept of the traditional Warren 4th of July celebration, frankly we were somewhat concerned about the acceptance of the Mid-Summer Mardi Gras program because it represented a radical departure from what the good people of Warren had become accustomed to in the (Turn to Page Fifteen)

Lias Family Pays Off Claims Filed By Mrs. Margiotti

A dispatch from Wheeling, W. Va., of local interest says the family of William G. (Big Bill) Lias has settled out of court claims totaling $370,630, including counsel fees of $338,630.53 by heirs of the late Charles J. Margiotti, Pittsburgh attorney.

Attorney Suto, of Pittsburgh, announced in Federal court he was withdrawing claims of Mrs. Denise K. Margiotti, the noted counselor's widow, for legal work in connection with defending Lias in the government's $3.3 million income tax claim and deportation proceedings. Joining in withdrawing claims against Lias were his Washington, D. C., attorney, Thurman Hill, and the Hoge-Davis Drug Company. Hill was asking $31,500, the drug firm $500.

Margiotti had been counsel for Lias for seven years. Big Bill's Wheeling Downs race track was sold last month to the Hazel Park Racing Association of Detroit for $1,780,000. His wife and two children, as owners of 40 per cent of the stock, are scheduled to receive that share of the Federal receivership sale.

Mirrored in Our Times

Maybe you've all seen the end of the Jaycee Mardi Gras celebration, but believe me, we haven't! In our neighborhood the Black Diamond Rodeo rides again, surrounded by various portions of the big parade complete with queen and her attendants. The kids have worked diligently on routines and costumes; have created an exquisite float and popped quantities of corn. In addition they're to feature ice cold beverages and balloons! Tickets have gone like hot cakes at 5c a throw, with the afternoon performance well attended this p. m. The big deal closes tonight with a 7 p. m. start. How they make out financially will undoubtedly depend on parental support!

While awaiting the real Mardi Gras parade, we spotted quite a fashion note — a doting couple marched by clad in matching ensembles. Hers were lavender shorts; his lavender slacks!

We've but one criticism concerning the July 6 parade—that was the lack of enthusiasm from the thousands of spectators. Too few expressed appreciation with the usual clapping of hands. Unit after unit passed to be greeted with a somewhat stolid silence. Perhaps Warrenites and guests failed to realize the tremendous effort required in providing the annual spectacle—hearty applause helps a lot when you're in the line of march.

A TV commercial last evening brought back memories of an old favorite — remember "Ferdinand the Bull"?—he just wanted to sit and smell the flowers, and we didn't blame him much.

Having noted the many hospital admissions during these past summer months, our thoughts turned to an ideal gift for someone lying ill in bed at that institution or at home. Not only that—there are numerous summer birthdays.

To continue, we've always believed that fragrance plays an important role in every day living. The truly feminine woman uses scent the year 'round — but specially during the hot and oft times humid months. It's appreciated by those close to her, if you'd care to take note. An exquisite fragrance always attracts favorable comment from those around and the wearer feels cool, fresh and carefree.

We earnestly recommend that you "smell like the flowers" — in SUMMER SHOWERS — a Prince Matchabelli fragrance creation featured now at the Warren Drug Store. And give "Summer Showers" as a very special gift. Choose cologne, bath powder or soap in all its delightful loveliness — a hot weather buy at just $1.00 each!

Avid readers can recall many an article dealing with the terrific pace at which we Americans are supposed to be living. However, during this particular wonderful summer, we've note a more casual approach to everything. Sure, the dust collects and the kitchen floor needs mopping — but aren't we having fun? Banished to the darkest closet (well filled with moth preventative) are those winter-weight suits and crisp, starched shirts (no, I'm shirts aren't in moth balls, but you get the idea!) —today, the men are working and playing in cool, comfortable and wonderfully washable warm weather outfits. White tie and tails are out of the picture as most men think of them. Dress-up clothes are now fabric miracles. Casual, yes—sloppy, no—on you they look good!

"Something wonderful happens"—when you take time to stop at The Style Shop. Actually you men have never had it so good! While you concentrate on looking your well-groomed best — The Style Shop does all the rest. No matter what the occasion, it's practical and comfortable to be dressed—in nothing but the best.

Our compliments to the Golden Agers who took part in the parade — their slogan "Life begins at 60" was a bit discouraging to some of us who were sold on the idea that it started at "40", but we're willing to wait a while longer. Also our thanks to "Big Joe" for supplying a home for our Easter rabbit in his now-famous Zoo.

FLOOD INSURANCE OUT

Flood insurance, under the Eisenhower program designed to mitigate disaster when flood waters overflow lowlands, seems definitely out for at least a year, says the Salamanca Republican-Press.

As recommended by the President a year ago, Congress created the Federal Flood Indemnity Administration to make flood insurance available to home owners, businessmen and farmers at rates they could afford to pay. The Flood Administration was to cooperate with and work through some 150,000 agents of private insurance companies. Expecting that funds or carrying on the program would be made available at this session of Congress, the Flood Administration announced recently that it was ready to start selling flood insurance.

But the program ran into the economy wave. The House denied the agency an appropriation for the fiscal year beginning July 1. An effort in the Senate to restore the item failed.

Unless the funds can be restored retroactively, the Flood Administration faces imminent death. Such restoration seems improbable in view of the expectation that a filibuster by Southern Senators against civil rights legislation is expected to begin on Monday and to tie the Senate up for an indefinite period.

ALERTS SERIOUS BUSINESS

With Warren's two Civil Defense air raid sirens blowing "familiarization" blasts Monday and Tuesday nights and with a large scale mutual aid demonstration Thursday to precede Friday's nation-wide CD test alert, we believe this excerpt of a letter from 1/Lt. Joseph Fuellhart (stationed at Thule, our base closest to Russia) will help point up the dead seriousness of each operation.

Writes Joe: "I'm fine physically but certainly wish my year here was finished. There is a feeling of tension all the time—wondering if the next alert for an unknown plane will be it; but I guess that feeling must be prevalent at all anti-aircraft sites. The average American doesn't realize how much goes into his protection . . ."

(Lt. Fuellhart, incidentally, is the son of Warren County Civil Defense director, William F. Fuellhart, and is serving a year at Thule, Greenland, with anti-aircraft.)

It will be a good thing to recall next time Civil Defense asks your cooperation for your own good.

PRESIDENT CLARIFIES AID ROLES

During President Eisenhower's address at the governors' conference in Williamsburg, Va., in late June, he particularly stressed the difference between governmental and Red Cross aid in disaster areas, making the following statement:

"One of my greatest friends is now head of the American Red Cross. He came to that post when the Red Cross reserve funds have been practically exhausted. The drive for Red Cross funds this year did not realize its full objective. He tells me from constant travel around the country the excuse he so often meets is—'Why should we donate to the Red Cross? Our taxes through the federal government are now taking care of these disasters'."

"In vain does he explain that the government steps in only to restore public facilities—roads, bridges, other public facilities, utilities, and so on. The Red Cross meets each person's problems as an individual and as a family . . . I regard this as one of the great real disasters to engulf us when we are unready as a nation—as a people—to meet personal disaster by our own cheerful giving."

Congratulations to our good friend and neighboring publisher, Ed J. Byrne, who today began his seventh year as editor of the Jamestown Morning Sun.

The editorial rooms of the Times-Mirror just don't seem the same without a group of enthusiastic Jaycees popping in every morning with news releases about their various activities—after weeks of daily visits.

"I Think He's Taking Advantage of Us"

Here and There

Here's an item from The Bradford Era that is directed to thoughtless motorists guilty of littering parks, highways, sidewalks and public places with all sorts of garbage from empty beer cans to cigarette packages: "Puppies invariably make a mess of homes—until they are sternly disciplined and taught to be clean and decent members of the family. One wishes that a similar discipline could be imposed on the 'litterbugs' who strew discarded paper, beer cans, empty bottles and all manner of other rubbish and dirt along the streets or highways, in recreation areas, and in beauty spots throughout the nation. The litterbugs have the crude manners of untrained puppies—without any of the puppies' excuses."

The annual Field Day for patients at the Warren State Hospital will be held tomorrow afternoon beginning at one o'clock, and one thing we have been asked to emphasize especially is that the public is not invited or permitted access to the grounds on this occasion. We were privileged to get a sneak preview of the program for the event, and must say it is one that should provide some interesting entertainment for everyone involved, including the patients and employees. Of course they will have the ever popular Indian Bonnettes, of Oil City, who made such a hit in the Mardi Gras Parade last Saturday evening in Warren. Their exhibition will be followed by competitive sports events for men and women patients, as well as student nurses, internes, staff, female employees and male employees. Just wouldn't be fair to divulge the complete schedule of events, but those in charge are to be commended for getting together a program that will provide one of the most exciting afternoon ever on the athletic field at the institution. Directors are Olive Bostrom, James Hillman, Leah Wagner and Gordon Reuff. We repeat again, this is one event that is not open to the public.

How many readers can remember back to the time they were 14 year olds and had to stay in bed with the measles or some such youth ailment? Remember how long that two-week period seemed? We ask because our attention has been called to the plight of a young lad down at Grand Valley, Dale Brown, who will likely be confined to his bed most of the summer with rheumatic fever and already reports it is "getting monotonous". Son of Mrs. Robert Frew, he asks if friends will send him picture magazines and the like for making scrapbooks with which to occupy his time. Seems like a wonderful idea and we are happy to pass the word along.

No one can run the social gauntlet of a summer without a complete glossary of weather conversation. I fact, our society probably would crack at the seams if we had to do without the weather clichés. For those who haven't mastered this social must, we present a typical conversation, sparkling with acute observations on the weather (which "everyone talks about, but . . .") "Hot enough for you?" "Well, of course, it's not the heat, it's the humidity, you know." "Looks like summer's really here." "We could use some rain. Hold down the dust, you know." "It's good for ducks, but that's about all." "Helps the crops." "Yeah, helps the crops." "I can't ever remember it being so hot." "Oh, used to be a lot hotter years ago." "Yeah?" "Yeah." "I don't think these H-Bomb explosions help it any." "They're not telling all they know about how it's changed the weather." "They say if you drink something hot, it cools you off." "That's what they say." "Hot enough for you?"

BY MRS. MURIEL LAWRENCE

PAUL's parents had recently moved to a new town. In the only neighborhood where they could find a house, there were no children of his age.

So one morning when his mother opened the front door, what she saw rejoiced her heart. In the driveway was a red-headed stranger, no bigger and no smaller than Paul, for whom he was demonstrating the chiming bell on his junior-size bicycle. Then, abruptly her heart sank away from its joy.

Paul was treating the stranger abominably. Right before her eyes, he'd shoved the guest away from his bicycle, shouting, "No, you can't ring it! I gotta ride now! I gotta whiz down this driveway. See me? Get outta my way—or I'll ride over you. . . ."

HER heart should have gone back where it belongs.

Paul's bossiness is not a fatal character defect but a most natural effect of his weeks of loneliness.

When you are seven and want a friend very much, you can't believe it when a possible one appears. You are terrified of losing him. To keep him, you do anything to prove your desirability to him.

You shove him away from your bicycle so he'll go on admiring your skill as the only skill that can make it perform.

You give him no chance at all to parade his powers to you because you already think him wonderful—and need all the time you've got with him to show him you're worthy of him.

WATCHING you, grownups may groan over your show-off bossiness. But this is only because they've forgotten how they tried to "prove themselves" to strangers, too, by offering roast beef too often and insisting on demonstrating their skill with a home movie camera.

I hope Paul's mother remembered. And that she said to him when the red-headed stranger left, "I, too, have been afraid a friend wouldn't come back, my chicken. Just as you are doing, I had to wait and see."

Because it would have been cruel to say, "Why were you so bossy with that boy? How can you ever expect to keep a friend if you treat him like that?" To a little boy already despairing of his desirability as a friend, this would have meant his mother's despair of it, too. Her criticism could turn the world into a very dismal place indeed.

MARINE MEETING

All members of the local Marine Corps League detachment are asked to report in for an important business meeting scheduled in the VFW post rooms at 7:30 p. m. Thursday.

ERIE PLUMBERS RETURN

Some 200 plumbers went back to work in Erie Tuesday, ending a five-week strike. A new contract gives them an immediate 25 cents hourly increase with a similar boost next year. Rates under the old contract were not revealed.

FIVE EMERGENCIES

Clifford Jenkins, Kinzua, was treated at Warren General Hospital emergency ward Tuesday for laceration of the forehead. Also treated were Philip Ward, 6 Melrose place, for a scalp laceration; Betty Silander, 606 Prospect street, knee laceration; Ethel Cloutman, Clarendon, gun shot wound of right arm; Virginia Day, Tidoute, laceration of fourth right finger.

WEED SPRAYING AT LAKE

The Chautauqua Lake Association announced Tuesday that poisoning of 356 acres of lake weeds will get started July 16. William G. Bentley, aquatic biologist for the Conservation Department's western fisheries district, said the job should be completed in about five days. Allied Biochemists & Associates of Butler, Wis., are the state's contractors. Areas to be covered include 36 acres off the Mayville beach, about 180 acres in the lower lake near Celoron, and all of Burtis Bay, about 220 acres. Bentley agreed with Lake Association officials that 1957 is the worst weed year in a decade or more. He blamed the condition on warm April weather which gave the weeds an early start. On one day in April, he said, the water temperature rose 13 degrees in three days. This year's spraying is the second in a limited three-year program covering the same areas. When the job is finished next summer weed control will be turned over to the Lake Association under state supervision. Bentley indicated that an expanded program will be authorized when the local interests take over. Cost of next year's operation will be just under $9,000. It will start at Mayville and move down to Burtis Bay on the 17th and 18th. The Celoron portion will be covered on the 19th and 20th.

Where Did You First Meet Your New Car?

Was it in an advertisement? So often the first meeting is... and how much it means to you and your family now. But it means even more to countless others, whose jobs depend on car sales.

When you buy a car, you help pay the salaries of your local dealer's salesmen. Part of your money went into their bank accounts, to their grocers, to other suppliers here in Warren. The circle goes on widening to include literally thousands all over America... all kinds of people in all kinds of jobs.

They buy cars, too, and millions of other items every day. Many of these sales begin with advertising on newspaper pages like this, country-wide.

So you can say, truthfully, that every time advertising helps to make a sale, your own paycheck and your family's way of living are just that much more secure.

In Her New Position of Freedom---

She Makes Capital of Her Advantages

BY ALICIA HART
NEA Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON—(NEA)—Women in other parts of the world are now discovering what American women have known for a long time: that emancipation of the female also brings with it a lot more work and responsibility for the female.

And nobody has a more realistic appreciation of this than Lulu Bilquis Banu, a recent official visitor from Pakistan. She has been called the hardest-working woman in Pakistan.

Mrs. Banu is one of the first women to take full advantage of the new freedoms which women in Pakistan and other Far Eastern countries have been getting since the war. She won several degrees in education in England and returned to her country where she is now assistant headmistress of the Viquarnissa School in Dacca, which prepares its students for entrance to Cambridge University, England.

NORMALLY THIS would be a full-time job for a woman. But not for Mrs. Banu, who also has a two-year-old daughter, by the way.

She is active in the Girl Scouts of East Pakistan, in the First Aid and Home Nursing Corps and in the Pakistan Women's National Guard. In her spare time during the past nine years she has also been appearing in dramatic roles on Radio Pakistan shows.

"Doing these things does mean a lot of work and effort," Mrs. Banu admits, "but I think it's my duty to do all I can as a result of all of the educational advantages I've had."

She does not feel that she is unique among newly liberated women of the Far East. "Women all over our part of the world are discovering the satisfactions of not being held back by old prejudice and tradition, and are taking advantage of this freedom," she says.

SHE BELIEVES that raising the general intellectual level of women all over the world will be a stabilizing political influence. "The men alone haven't done too much good in the way of bringing about world peace," she claims.

"When women get their full influence in world politics and peacemaking, however," she says, "I'm sure the world will be better off."

The youthful Mrs. Banu is far from through with her education. She recently added a law degree and hopes to get one in geography within a few years.

Kenneth Thomas and family, Birmingham, and Mrs. Wilbur Thomas and family, Pittsburgh.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Whyte and the Ted Whytes left Monday for a vacation trip to the Finger Lakes and other New York state resorts.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Tome and family have returned from Catalina where they spent the holiday with Mr. and Mrs. Roy Adams, former local residents.

Mr. and Mrs. John Learn and children and Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Learn, Jamestown, have been callers of Mrs. Verna Learn.

Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Ruth and family, with Mr. and Mrs. Sam Ruth, have been recent Buffalo visitors.

A number of localities were in Warren Saturday evening to attend the parade sponsored by the Jaycees.

Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm Sparks and family have returned to Jersey Shore after spending the holiday with a number of local relatives.

The Norman Carlsons were local visitors on the Fourth, and, with the Marshall Gardners and other relatives, enjoyed an outing and dinner.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Browne,

Noble, have been visitors of Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Browne.

Through This Woman Executive-- Sagging Lace Industry Gets New Life

BY AILEEN SNODDY
NEA Staff Correspondent

NEW YORK—(NEA)—Following the straight and narrow path may be old hat but it has paid off in executive jobs for a woman designer.

It's also paid off for the average housewife. Mrs. U.S.A. now can step into the drapery department of a large store and walk out with "lace" curtains at a popular price.

All this has happened because Beulah Charlant, director of styling and merchandising for Scranton Lace Co., kept her nose out of office politics. Instead she went after new designs with a redhead's determination.

As for the place of women in executive positions, she says, "There should be no complaint if a woman sticks to her job."

THE KEYS to any woman's success in an executive area, she says, are luck and being prepared, with heavy emphasis on the latter.

Miss Charlant is in a field dominated for years by men. To them goes much of the credit for cabby patterned lace curtains. These designs were almost the death knell of lace in this country.

"We want to bring back a sense of well-being and luxury to homes and help people live gracefully. And not just those of a higher income bracket," the designer explains.

"Lace has always been an item

Miss Beulah Charlant

of gracious living. It landed on the basement counters and shelves because housewives grew tired of borax. Lace was hard to keep white—especially the floral or very ornate patterns," she points out.

THE NEW CASEMENT cloth fabric Miss Charlant designs bears the magic words of the era—drip-dry.

How to capture the upstairs market through the average housewife faced Miss Charlant in her new job last year.

Her solution: utilize what we have. In this case it was the traditional weaving machines. The result was wide seamless widths of material that will cover most home windows. And the modern designs, Scandinavian and Italian influenced, also appeal to men.

Her inspiration came from a city-block long Nottingham weaving machine the company uses. It could turn out endless quantities of 90-inch or wider material without stopping, she learned. Ninety inches is standard length for ready-made draperies.

THE TRICK, Miss Charlant found, is to put the modern designs on the loom sideways. Thus the 90-inch dimension becomes the length of the finished drapery. The width of the seamless curtain is whatever you want it to be.

Although she took the frills out of draperies, Beulah Charlant couldn't keep them out of her hobby, making hats.

"Oh, I have closets of hats," she exclaimed. She describes her creations as having a "severely tailored base with frills and much tulle. You know, 'My Fair Lady'ish."

In a penthouse overlooking the Hudson she follows her daughter's progress in studying design. "My daughter is studying to put me out of business," she laughed in parting.

HAL BOYLE'S COLUMN

By HAL BOYLE

Alcoa, Tenn. (AP)—William Andrew Nicholson is an 80-year-old carpenter who built an everlasting home because he confidently expects to live forever.

It is a fortress-like stone dwelling of 14 rooms and was built by Nicholson and his wife over an 8-year period. It is known locally as "Millennium Manor" and "The house that faith built."

"It cannot rust or rot," said Nicholson, whose keen blue eyes and white hair make him look like a patriarch in a striped sport shirt, "and if nothing wrecks it there is no reason why it shouldn't last a million years."

Nicholson himself is serenely certain that a million years from now he will be happy, alive and content with his house and lot.

His reason is simple. He loves Jesus Christ, and he accepts as a statement of literal fact that Biblical promise that whosoever loves Christ will have everlasting life.

"I believe in the Bible, and I believe in life," he said. "I believe in preparing to live instead of preparing to die."

So it was that in 1938 the kindly carpenter and his wife, who had borne him 10 children, began at the age of 61 to build an eternal shelter for an eternal life on earth. There was to go into it nothing but cement, rock and Tennessee pink marble.

Nicholson worked eight hours a day at his trade, then worked six to eight hours more on his home. He pushed 300-pound marble stones to their place in a wheelbarrow. His wife poured the mortar.

The house, completed in December, 1946, is two stories tall. Its outside walls are from two to three feet thick. It has two bathrooms furnished with huge stone and cement chais. The roof alone contains 432 tons of rock.

Six years ago Mrs. Nicholson died of cancer, leaving her husband lonely but still sure he himself will enjoy eternal life.

"It was hard to be parted from her after so many years," he said. "My wife believed in me, but her faith in eternal life was weak. She tried to believe, but she had her doubts. There came times when she talked of dying."

Nicholson's unusual home has become something of a tourist attraction. He says he has been offered $150,000 for it, but has no intention of selling.

"What would I want with the money?" he asked. "I have everything I need."

"I haven't been sick for 40 years. I don't worry about the atomic bomb—or anything else. I let nothing bother me."

"I keep healthy by serving God the best I know how. I don't go to church. I used to belong to a church, but got out. They didn't like my views."

One of Nicholson's views that have led some of his neighbors to regard him as eccentric is his conviction that the world will be destroyed soon—probably by 1959—but that 144,000 righteous, including himself, will be saved.

Nicholson himself doesn't mind what his neighbors think, or anyone else for that matter.

However long he lives himself, the rugged, picturesque home he built stands as a temple of love—a poor man's pyramid—the testimony in stone of a mighty faith that stirred a simple heart to a dream of timeless grandeur.

Two Irate New York Motorists Nudge Each Other Into Court

Two Irate New York State drivers who tried to force each other off the road yesterday afternoon wound up their high speed antics in a field just this side of Chandler's Valley and a vigilante trio of enraged women marched their right off to the peace justice's office where both were found guilty of reckless driving.

According to Sgt. Donald Holmes of Warren Trooper Barracks, Robert J. Howard, 40, of Jamestown and Theodore Dunn, 18, of Ashville, became involved in a high-powered dispute over how much money Dunn owed his boss Howard for an old car he had purchased.

Dunn left the argument scene finally and was driving off when he peered through the mirror and saw Howard racing after him down the road. From Jamestown past Chandler's Valley the two cars zoomed at high speeds sometimes nudging bumpers, sometimes pulling abreast and trying to force each other into the ditch.

On the curve north of Chandler's Valley, Mrs. Robert Falconer was forced to run off the road to avoid the two machines veering down the highway side by side in the opposite direction. A Mrs. Abbey of Chandler's Valley was "almost sucked up the exhaust" by the speed of the two vehicles as they sped past her.

Finally, near where Yankee Bush road intersects with Route 69 below Chandler's Valley, Howard succeeded in forcing Dunn into a field and, screaming to a stop, leaped out and grabbed him. Constable Falconer, who lives nearby, intervened in the scuffle and awaited state troopers.

When troopers arrived, Mrs. Falconer, Mrs. Abbey and a Mrs. Johnson who had seen the end of the episode, pressed forward and said they would go with officers right then to see justice done. Accordingly, the women jumped into a car and followed troopers and prisoners to Peace Justice Fred Berry.

Berry listened to the women testify, found the men guilty as charged with reckless driving. Howard, who is a demolition man by trade, raked up $25 and $5 costs. Dunn was sent to county lockup in lieu of cash.

Playing Willie Mays and Rival Managers by Ear

BY HARRY GRAYSON
NEA Sports Editor

NEW YORK—(NEA)—"Uh huh. I am living nice, but that has nothing to do with being a hungry ballplayer. Quite naturally, you gonna be paid if you play it well, but I don't think about money when I play. The way I see a hungry ballplayer that's the one who goes out there and gives everything he's got. He could be losing by seven runs in the ninth inning, but he's still out there giving everything because he loves baseball. Money has nothing to do with it."

"Barclay's game against the Cards." Manager Bill Rigney challenged, "they got a couple of hits and they put in Schofield as a pinch-runner and Blasingame is up. Now both these fellows can run. Blasingame rips one. He hits the right center screen and everybody starts running. But Willie is on that ball. And as soon as he picks it up it looked like one of those games kids play . . . what's that thing where everybody grabs a seat when the music stops? Well, it was just like that. Everybody started to run back to a base."

"You've never seen anything like it. They're all afraid he'll throw them out if they even take a foot off the bag. We're on the road and balls are going to the outfield good for doubles and triples. Willie cuts 'em to a single so fast nobody knows what happened."

"SURE I THINK WHEN I'm going for a fly. I think about how hard it's hit, how many runners are on base, how close the wall is to me or something, but I think."

"How do I get a good break on a fly? I don't know how. It's something you just do. You got to have instinct. You're born with it."

"Life is a one-man game," Birdie Tebbetts of Cincinnati tells everybody. "I can't think of one particular thing he's done to beat us . . . because he's done so many things that you forget everything and wind up just thinking about how good he is."

"I'll tell you this . . . get the ball near him. Hit it near him or throw it near him. He beats you then. He beats you any way it can be done."

"It may seem easy. You read every day in the papers that you're doing good . . . maybe I am, but I don't feel it. Sometimes things come easy. Then other times you find you're struggling and that's the way I look at it, but the paper keeps saying you're doing good."

"Bays." Walter Alston of the Dodgers mused, "has beaten us so much he's the kind of player you talk about. What does he do to bother us the most? I'd have to say hittin' the ball out of the park at Ebbets Field. That's as good a way as any to hurt you, I guess."

"SURE IT'S DIFFERENT NOW. It's all different when you're winning. It's that way in every sport. I don't think I play any different whether we're winning or losing, but like I say, winning makes you feel good. I throw the ball, I catch the ball, I try to hit the ball. Same every day. But it just feels good to win."

"Musial really hit one." Fred Hutchinson of the Cardinals testified. "It was in the first inning and he hits to left center. Right against the fence. Mays went and got it. Our next batter doubled, but what good was it? There were two out and the Giants got out of the inning. We should have had a lot of runs. Mays made sure we got nothing."

"When I go into a slump, I like to lay off first pitches. But those pitchers are wise to me. When I'm not hittin' they throw that first one right down the pipe. When I'm not hittin', I don't think I even scare them."

Many Important New Bills Signed By Governor Leader

Harrisburg (P) — Gov. Leader has signed a new law giving Pennsylvania magistrates the power to jail motorists who refuse or fail to pay fines for passing school buses illegally.

The measure, in the form of an amendment to the state's motor vehicle code, provides for a 10-day jail term. It also alters the fine from $25-$50 to a flat $25 and costs. There was no jail sentence specified in the law before.

Other measures approved by the governor yesterday do these things:

Authorize the revenue secretary to adopt minimum standards and specifications for brake fluid sold or distributed in Pennsylvania.

Allow the the Public Instruction Department a maximum of 19 instead of 14 months to process school building project applications.

Give all counties specific authorization to continue annual appropriations toward defraying the cost of activities of industrial development agencies.

Permit holders of retail dispenser liquor licenses to operate by daylight saving or eastern standard time during the months daylight time is in effect.

Prohibit mutual insurance companies from writing surety business unless they maintain a surplus over liabilities of more than $250,000.

Allow reclassifications of school districts at any time when there has been a change in population rather than only every 10 years when the U. S. census is taken.

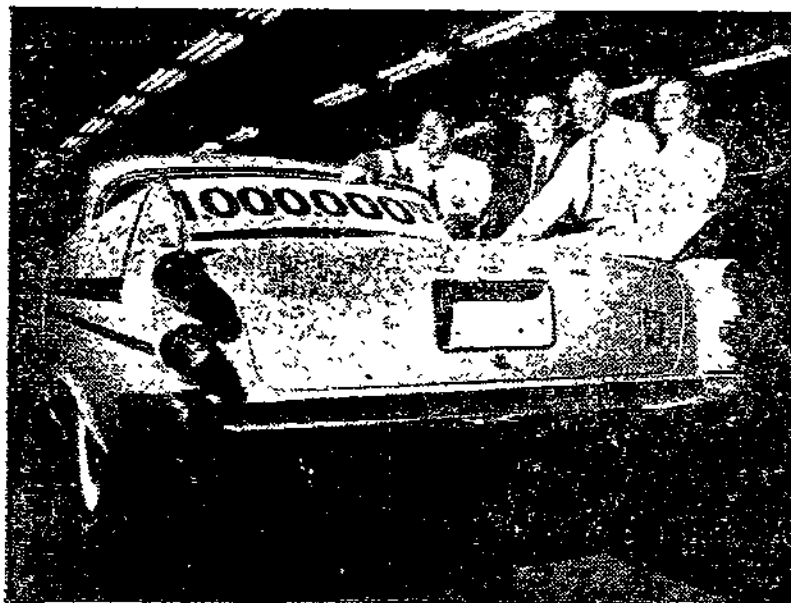

Require the state council of education to give affected school districts a hearing on any application to create or change a third or fourth class district.

Permit the prosecution of a person who files a false application for a driver's license or license plates in the county where they apply.

Jamboree Scouts Receive Greeting From Gov. Leader

The greetings and best wishes of Governor George M. Leader of Pennsylvania have been received by the Boy Scouts of America as they prepare to leave for their Fourth National Jamboree at Valley Forge, Pennsylvania, and the 47th Annual Meeting of their National Council at Philadelphia.

The jamboree, occupying 1,500 acres of Valley Forge State Park, will be held from July 12 to 18. More than 53,000 are expected.

The National Council meeting July 11 and 12 at the Hotel Sheraton in Philadelphia will attract 1,400 top Scout leaders.

Governor Leader's message, addressed to Dr. Arthur A. Schuck, Chief Scout Executive of the Boy Scouts of America, follows:

"As 50,000 Boy Scouts and their leaders from all over the world prepare to move into historical and beautiful Valley Forge, Pennsylvania, for the Fourth National Jamboree, I want to take the opportunity to commend them through you for the work they are doing.

"Under the leadership of dedicated adults, each of these young men is learning a pattern of life which will guide his actions for many years to come. In strengthening these young men, you and your associates are adding strength to the Nation and the World.

"I am quite sure that if the ghost of George Washington could move around the Valley Forge encampment on July 12th, he would feel strongly that we had done our part in observing the heritage that he and his men gave us during the winter of 1777-78 on this same tract of land.

"My heartiest congratulations to all of you."

Pennsylvania Gas ing New Rate cheduled With PUC

Friday the Pennsylvania Gas Supply Commission will file with the Pennsylvania Public Utility Commission a rate schedule to become effective on bills rendered for the full month of service after member 11. Pennsylvania Gas receives its supply of gas from the west through the lines of the company. The increased rates of the company that become effective July 14 will increase Pennsylvania's gas costs by approximately $145,000 annually. Conaway further stated that Pennsylvania serves approximately 2,600 customers located in western Pennsylvania. The age monthly increase in a residential heating customer's bill will be 8c for a residential customer using gas for heating the inside will be 8c. The Federal Power Commission instituted an investigation of the increase, the outcome of the investigation may result in a reduction or other adjustment of the increase. Because of this, Pennsylvania has agreed to file with the Pennsylvania Public Utility Commission to make refunds to its customers as the result of the Federal Power Commission investigation may warrant. The clubs, striving to get square with the schedule by staging a "week-end" game Tuesday evening, Sugar Grove, wound up in a 1-1 tie at the end of six innings when darkness descended. The night's fall turned an elegant "week-end" pitching effort by Sugar Grove's Don Spencer. Onoville's three hurlers, started Holsinger, Steve Burch and Manager Carl Rich, in succession. The .22 calibre slug thudded into the woman's right arm as she walked west on the south side of Main street between Clarendon Methodist church and parsonage. The bullet apparently came from between two houses only 50 feet apart on the opposite side of the street. Mrs. Cloutman said she heard the shot, then felt a thud on her arm. She released the child who was walking with her and hurried to the office of Dr. Robert Nerthling down the street. The victim was then taken to Warren General Hospital where her right arm was reported "fairly comfortable." Her arm was broken by the bullet which will not be removed. The shot is presumed to have come from a 200-yard wooded area behind the houses across the street and which has long been a favorite but dangerous shooting ground for Clarendon youth. Sheriff's Department is conducting an investigation and new leads are being pushed.

Emphasizing he would not quote the President directly, Russell reported that he had pointed out to Eisenhower certain provisions of the measure which Russell feels go "far beyond the objectives" set forth by the President at news conferences and on other occasions. Democrat Fund Raising

Drives Disappointing

Washington (AP)—Four Democratic fund-raising drives this year have brought in "barely enough" to pay for normal operations of the party's national committee Chairman Paul M. Butler said today.

Butler said in an interview, however, that he expects drives in the last four months of the year to bring in enough to meet weekly payrolls.

A special plan will have to be devised to reduce the committee's two-month-old deficit of $669,000, he said. Committee Treasurer Matthew McCloskey is considering two proposals: (1) ask $600 Democrats to give $100 each; or (2) ask $5 Democrats to guarantee to raise $1,000 each.

Showgirl Boosts Her TV Winnings to $96,000

New York (AP)—Showgirl Barbara Hall, shapely Shakespearean scholar from Pittsburgh, boosted her TV quiz winnings to $96,000 last night.

Miss Hall, 24, correctly answered a four-part question on Shakespeare on CBS-TV's "The $64,000 Question." Next Tuesday night she will try the $128,000 question. If she wins, she keeps that much and becomes eligible for questions leading to a maximum prize of $250,000.

Another former Pittsburgh resident, film star Gene Kelly, gave the showgirl her questions last night. He pitched for the program's vacationing emcee, Hal March.

Miss Hall came up with the right answers to the four-part question on Shakespeare's personal life.

Altoona Is Faced With Mass Transit Problem

Altoona (AP)—Mayor Robert W. Anthony says he has no other plan in mind at this time to solve the city's mass transit problem following a defeat of his proposal to set up a city transit authority.

The mayor introduced a proposed ordinance to create an authority to take control of the Altoona & Logan Valley Bus Co., which wants to go out of business.

When the measure came up for a vote yesterday, the mayor voted favorably but the four councilmen rejected the plan, saying the city was not financially able to assume the responsibility.

Altoona & Logan Valley—this city's principal mass transit system—told the Public Utility Commission in March it was going out of business because it was losing money.

The delegates sent from WCLC were Earl Peterson Jr., Frank Downey, Frank Duffy, Norman Matthews and Simon Huckabone. Any affiliated local who desires a discussion on topics covered at the institute may contact any of the above mentioned delegates. Warren plans to be host to a similar institute here this fall and it is hoped that every union member will be able to attend.

There will be no meeting during July. The next meeting will be Tuesday, August 27 in the American Legion home.

Afternoon of "All Star" Hot Stove League Games August 10th

American League Victory In All-Star Game Attributed To Breaks and Stengel's "Luck"

By JOE REICHLER
St. Louis (P)—Chicago's Minnie Minoso and Detroit's Jim Bunning and Al Kaline were singled out today as the 1957 All-Star Game heroes, but some critics attributed the American League's 6-5 victory yesterday to good breaks, poor National League base running and Casey Stengel's luck.

Each side scored three times in the ninth inning. A fine throw and catch by Minoso preserved the American's second triumph in the last eight years and Stengel's second success in seven All-Star games. Minoso's double in the top of the ninth drove in Kaline with the winning run.

The crowd of 30,683 witnessed splendid pitching by young Bunning, Baltimore's Billy Loos and Milwaukee's Lew Burdette, and fine fielding and timely hitting by Kaline and Minoso. They also saw several plays that will be second-guessed for many weeks.

Why did National League Manager Walter Alton decide to let Milwaukee's Eddie Mathews swing away in the ninth inning? The potential tying runs were on second and first, and with nobody out, strategy cried for a bunt.

Why didn't Cincinnati's Gus Bell stop at second on Chicago Cub Ernie Banks' one-out run-scoring single in the ninth which cut the American's lead to 6-5? Bell tried to advance to third and was an easy out on Minoso's throw to Boston's Frank Malzone.

Why didn't Cincinnati's Frank Robinson, who had opened the National's fifth with a single, run to second on Mathews' apparent line drive hit to right field? Instead, Robinson retreated after going halfway and was thrown out at second by Kaline, who made a one-handed stab of the ball on the first bounce.

Left-hander Don Mossi of Cleveland, summoned out of the bullpen to relieve Chicago southpaw Billy Pierce, got Mathews on a called third strike. Banks followed with a single which would have tied the score had Eddie advanced the two runners.

"Had I known Eddie would strike out and Banks would hit that single," the skipper of the Brooklyn Dodgers said with a smile, "I would have had Mathews bunt."

Ironically, the best pitcher of the day was Bunning, whom Casey nominated to start only because Cleveland's Early Wynn, his original choice, had been used Sunday.

Bunning hurled three perfect innings as Stengel's crew built up a 2-0 lead against Philadelphia's Curt Simmons.

And so the American League won its 14th to 10 for the National League in All-Star competition.

Couple Middleweights To Meet Tonight in Chicago

Chicago (P)—Chebo Hernandez and Willie Vaughn, a couple of 24-year-old middleweights hoping to crash the boxing rating column of their division, meet tonight at Chicago Stadium.

Hernandez and Vaughn battled to two 10-round draws before Hernandez scored a two-round knockout over his opponent three years ago.

Since then, Vaughn, who fights out of Los Angeles, has gained a lot of experience. Vaughn takes a 33-14-4 record into the battle. ELKS TO SEE ACTION AGAIN ON SATURDAY

As announced previously the Warren Elks will see action again Saturday when they meet the fast Martin-Rockwell team at the State Hospital diamond, with Kenny Thompson the probable pitcher for the locals. Because of field day activities tomorrow the team will be unable to practice at the hospital diamond this week. A Sunday game will probably be booked, the opponent to be announced later.

PHILADELPHIA TOURNEY

Philadelphia (P)—Dick Stephens used a wedge to blast from the green of the 18th hole at Cedarbrook Country Club in the qualifying round of the Philadelphia Amateur Golf Championship yesterday. His approach shot buried in the green. Players were not permitted to lift a ball for cleaning purposes and the tournament committee had made no provision for the situation. Stephens blasted the ball 15 feet past the pin, replaced his turf and got down in two putts for a 74. He shot a 75 in his second round to qualify.

Herb Score Takes School Classmate for His Bride

Boynton Beach, Fla. (P)—Herb Score, injured Cleveland Indians pitching star, and Miss Nancy McNamara, his Lake Worth, Fla., high school classmate, were to be married today at St. Mark's Roman Catholic Church.

The couple's wedding trip plans were not divulged, but Score is due in Cleveland Monday for an eye examination which may determine how soon he can return to baseball.

The bride chose a sister, Helen, as her maid of honor. Score's best man was his uncle, Arthur Flood of Hagerstown, Md. Score joined the Indians as a bonus player and became American League strikeout king before a batted ball injured his eye early in June.

Proceeds of Benefit Program To Aid Kiwanis Welfare Fund And Junior Baseball Activities

The officers of your Hot Stove league are again working closely with the Warren Kiwanis Club which has been authorized to sponsor an afternoon of "All Star" games bringing together two "All-Star" teams from each of the five (5) Hot Stove Divisions.

The proceeds from these "All-Star" games will remain within our community as a percentage of the gate will be used for continuation of Hot Stove activities, and the Kiwanis Welfare Fund.

So that you and the boys on your team might prepare for the coming event, the following information will be helpful:

Competition will take place at War Memorial Field on August 10th starting at 2 o'clock with the Bantam Division on the small diamond, followed by the Midgets at 4 and Cadets at 6:00. The inter-mediate will take over on the big diamond at 3:00 o'clock followed by the Junior "All-Stars" at 5:30.

Each manager will pick the following number of "All-Stars" from his team:

1. Bantams—East and Western divisions pick two (2) players from each team.
2. Midgets—East and Western divisions pick two (2) players from each team.
3. Cadets—City and County managers will pick two (2) players from each team.
4. Intermediates—City manager will pick two (2) players, while the County managers will pick three (3) players from each team.
5. Juniors—Each manager will pick six (6) players from his team.

Each boy chosen as an "All-Star" player will receive public announcement, a certificate of recognition, and, of course, the chance to play with other "All-Stars".

This year, as last, ticket distribution centers will be set up in Warren and the County so that Hot Stoves may pick up tickets. The first five (5) boys selling the most tickets, money wise, will receive baseball prizes as given away last year.

All Hot Stove players will be admitted to the "All-Star" games without being charged by simply showing their "Hot Stove" membership card. This privilege entitles them on to the field but not bleacher space.

Managers will be appointed for the "All-Star" teams to see that each "All-Star" player gets a chance to play and that each player wears his full uniform. Last, but not least, Hot Stove rules apply to all games.

As managers of teams for the double and single.

Casey Wins Second All-Star Game In Spite of Himself

St. Louis (P)—Crafty old Casey Stengel was a winning All-Star Game manager for the second time in seven tries today, partly because things he didn't want to do turned out so well.

He didn't want to start Detroit's Jim Bunning, who was his No. 1 choice behind Cleveland's Early Wynn. Bunning retired all nine men he faced.

Casey wasn't happy with the fans' choice of Harvey Kuenn as Detroit at short, Vic Wertz as Cleveland at first and Baltimore's George Kell at third, and was determined to replace them after three innings.

That he did, but not before Wertz and Kuenn had batted in the first two runs—Wertz with a single and Kuenn with a bases-loaded walk.

No fault can be found with Stengel's replacements—Moose Skowron at first and shortstop Gil McDougald of his own New York Yankees and Boston's Frank Malzone at third. Moose rapped

With Season Half Over St. Louis Redbirds Appear To Be In Position to Lead the Pack

By ED WILKS
The Associated Press

The season's half over and this could be it for the St. Louis Cardinals in that National League taffy pull, where everybody's been too busy trying to keep up to ever get ahead.

Manager Fred Hutchinson's Redbirds, the best road club in the league, are in position to take charge. They carry a five-game winning streak and a 2½-game claim on first place against the sixth-place New York Giants tomorrow, opening a 13-game swing through the East.

Second-place Milwaukee opens its Eastern tour at Pittsburgh in the only game scheduled tonight. Tomorrow night, third-place Philadelphia, 3½ games behind, is home to Chicago's last-place Cubs, with fourth-place Cincinnati, three percentage points back of the Phillies, at Brooklyn. The Brooks are five games behind in fifth—their first second division standing at the halfway point since 1948.

In the American, the New York

Yankees head into the West for 12 games with the idea of locking up the race for good. The Yankees also 2½ games ahead, open at Kansas City tomorrow night.

The second-place White Sox are home to Washington tomorrow night, with Baltimore at Cleveland in a two-night twin bill and Boston at Detroit for a day game.

Only the Cardinals and Milwaukee have won more than they've lost in the last month among the NL contenders. St. Louis was 20-10, the Braves 16-13. Philadelphia was 14-15, with Cincinnati—in first place by a game a month ago—and Brooklyn both 13-16.

While only 20-20 at home after sweeping four from Cincinnati last weekend to grab first place from the Redlegs, the Cardinals are 26-11 on the road, with a 17-6 record in the East. Milwaukee and Cincinnati are only 13-10 in the Eastern parks.

The Yankees, finally in gear, have won four in a row and 11 of their last 12 for a 51-26 record—the same mark they had after 77 games in 1956, although it was good for a five-game lead then.

Plans Revealed For C. D. Mutual Aid Run Thursday Night

All fire companies will be alerted by the selective calling system sometime in the early evening of July 11th. Having been alerted by their sirens they will activate their radios and ask for their designated duties. Those duties are listed below, but the same duties will be given to them over the fire radios after they are activated.

The following fire companies will then proceed by the shortest routes to Market and Pennsylvania avenue (junction of Routes 62 and 6): Sheffield, Clarendon, Glade, Russell, North Warren and Sugar Grove. At the intersection of Market and Pennsylvania avenue there will be two Auxiliary Police men per company waiting to act as a guide for each entering truck. These guides will take each unit to a location in Warren Borough for final hook-up and will stand by that unit for further orders.

The following fire companies will pick up their Auxiliary Police guides at the intersection of Laurel street and Pennsylvania avenue and will proceed with the guides to their location for final hookup: Bear Lake, Columbus, Youngsville, Star Brick and Wrightsville.

Pleasant Fire Co. will pick up their Auxiliary Police guides at the south end of Hickory Street bridge.

The Auxiliary Police guides for the two Warren Borough trucks participating will report directly to the Fire Station in the Borough furnishing the trucks.

As these companies participating in the mutual aid run will have two or more fire trucks in their home stations, and all trucks not participating will be standing by their radios, it is felt the County is still completely protected.

Toll in Europe's July Heat Wave Is Continuing to Rise

Rome (AP)—The death toll of one of Europe's worst July heat waves rose today to at least 238, including 52 enfeebled inmates in Italy's crowded homes for the aged.

Showers appeared to have broken the nine-day torrid wave across northern Europe. But throughout scorched central Europe and over the sun-blistered Italian peninsula deaths rocketed, and there was no relief in sight.

A week of 100-degree temperatures had taken at least 96 lives in Italy.

West Germany had at least 68 dead, 50 of them from drowning. Austria, still in the grip of the worst heat wave since 1873, counted 35 dead. The engineer of a local train near Wiener Neustadt collapsed and fell from his cab. The train ran with no one at the controls until a fireman noted what had happened and pulled an emergency brake.

The Netherlands had 29 drownings but temperatures had dropped into the 70s. France had 25 deaths and Belgium 12.

Torpedo Picnic Is Scheduled July 20th

Cole Hill—The annual Homecoming Day for all Torpedo residents, former residents and interested friends has been planned for Saturday, July 20, in the Torpedo church and it is anticipated there will be the usual large crowd in attendance.

Among other important events coming up are the Burt family reunion on Island Park, Youngsville, on Saturday of this week; the 53rd reunion of descendants of Sidney W. Cole at the same place on Saturday, July 27.

Orie Kibbey is building a new barn on his farm near Pittsfield.

Mrs. John Zolko, home from Warren General Hospital on Saturday, has had the following visitors: Mr. and Mrs. John Furtak, Mr. and Mrs. Steve Yucha, Pittsfield; Mr. and Mrs. John Yucha, Jr., Cambridge, Pa.

Nellie Wentworth has received an interesting letter from her aunt, Mrs. George E. Cole, of Woodburn, Ore., who is the former Eunice Wilcox of Grand Valley and was 82 years old July 9.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Armitage and family, Tidioute, were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Burnel Holmes at Torpedo.

Willing Workers will meet Thursday at the home of Mrs. Fred Palmer at Torpedo.

Services were held in the Garland Methodist church at 2:30 p. m. Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Wilson, of Fagundus, have been callers at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Williams.

Mr. and Mrs. Seth Holmes, Mickle Hill road, attended the young people's convention of Wesleyan Methodist church at Stoneboro.
